OH! MY PROPHETIC SOUL, my uncle, sent me to town to find out which is the cheapest and best stocked bookstore. After mature consideration I selected Jacobsen's, 499 Florida, where I found I could buy the best literary works at a most moderate price. I also saw that a Clearance Sale of an immense number of volumes is being carried on there, and I bought a nice, competent little library of Standard works for a mere song. I found the rooms to be the airiest and best lighted in town. (Extract from a letter of Lord Salisbury to Dr. Jamieson(. Therefore, remember Jacobsen's, 499 Florida.

Gentlemen:—The piano has had as eventful a career in some ways as any in Japan, I suppose. The steamer it came on was captured and held some weeks by the Chinese. On arriving late in Japan it had to be transported over sundry railroads, and at last carted on a hand-cart 70 miles over two high mountain ranges by terribly bad roads. Since then it has passed a cold winter and hot summer, both terribly damp. In spite of that, and the fact that it has not been tuned since leaving your warerooms, it retains its pitch and tone delightfully.
Yours very truly,

COMPLICATIONS BETWEEN ENGLAND AND FRANCE.

The Dongola Expedition.

Paris, 18th—The news of the Dongola expedition has caused a deep sensation, and the Cabinet admit that the situation is very serious. Mons. Bourgeois, the Premier, is determined that the expenses of the Expedition shall not be defrayed by the Egyptian Exchequer.

The situation has given rise to the most varied comments, but the goneral tone is one of indignation against England.

Berlin 18th—The semi-official papers state that England as well as Italy can depend upon the support of Germany and Austria for their policy in Africa, and that the Dongola expedition will be carried out in spite of every opposition.

Paris, 18th—The papers state that the powers which guarantees the Egyptian Debt will refuse to authorize the Khedive to defray the cost of the Dongola Expedition.

London 18th—The Rome correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette states that France and Russia are busily intriguing to get Italy out of the Triple Alliance. The question is assuming a serious aspect, owing to the attitude the French are taking as regards the Dongola Expedition.

The course taken by the French Minister of Foreign Affairs in reference to the Dongola expedition has created some impression here. The English papers, especially the Times and the Standard publish violent articles against France for her hostility to Great Britain and even threaten her. The English public is also greatly irritated and insists that the expedition must be carried out quite irrespective of what France says or does.

Paris, 18th—Minister Berthelot had a long conference this morning with the Russian Ambassador Baron Morenheim about the Dongola expedition. It is said that France will oppose by every means the payment of the cost of the expedition by the Egyptian Treasury and it is said that Russia and Turkey will support France in this. The Chambers will support the Government in whatever steps it may take in this question.

Cairo, 18th—The resolution of the London War-Office to replace by British the Egyptian troops already ordered to march against the Dervishes, has caused here considerable surprise.

Berlin, Germany is willing that the Egyptian Foreign Debt-Office should contribute toward the expenses of the Dongola expedition.

Rome, 18th—The Italian Ambassador visited Lord Salisbury to-day and thanked him in the name of King Humbert for the friendly sentiments expressed for Italy by Mr. Curzon the sub-secretary in the House of Commons.

Paris, 18th—All Europe is evincing a keen interest in the struggle between the diplomatists of England and France. The Press of Berlin, St. Petersburg, Vienna, Constantinople and London express fears that serious consequences may ensue, fraught with danger to the peace of Europe. In Russia the official organs urge that the opportunity should be taken to settle by a European couference the question of the ocoupation of Egypt by England.

Berlin, 18th—Some important newspapers urge the Government to support the protest of France against the employment of funds from the Egyptian Treasury to defray part of the cost of the Dongola expedition. Neither does the official Press show much sympathy with England in this question of expenditure.

Rome, 18th—Great regret here is expressed at the difficulties which have arisen between France and England with regard to the Soudan campaign.

Italy

Reopening of the Chambers.

Latest from Africa.

Rome, 18th.—An enormous crowd turned up to witness the reopening of the Chambers. The Radical Deputies were greeted with great applause. Messrs. Cavlaloti, De Felice and Bosco received a regular ovation.

Before entering into the usual routine the President of the Chambers, Mr. Villa congratulated the soldiers in Africa on their patriotic efforts. Rudini's speech was met with great applause. As regards the steps taken in Abyssinian towards a peace treaty, the President said that whatever should occur, Italy would always maintain its rights and its honour As regards the new loan, the following Committee was named:—Bovio, Blancheri, Cadolini, Coppino, Sangiuliano, Fortis, Luzzatti, Martini, Tittoni and Carmine.

A sort of commotion was created by an individual called Humberto Merenda, who declares he is a natural son of Victor Manuel. After a long consultation it was stated that the man was mad.

Signor Ville, the President of the Chamber of Deputies has withdrawn his resignation at the request of the Chamber backed by the Prime Minister.

The Deputies commenced this afternoon to discuss the despatches from Abyssinia. It is impossible to guess what resolution will be arrived at.

The latest news from Africa reports that the Abyssinian troops hava not moved towards the West of Entiscio. General Baldissera has informed the Government that the last supply of food has arrived safely at Kassala.

THE CUBAN STRUGGLE.

Rumoured Defeat of Rebels

100,000,000 Pesetas Subscribed

Opinions of the German Press

Counting the cost.

New York, 18.—According to telegrams from official Spanish sources, the Royal troops have completely defeated Maceo in the Province of Pinar del Rio at a place called Candelaria. No details as yet.

The foregoing news is denied by the Cuban Revolutionary Committee. Maceo is near San Cristobal at the head of a considerable body of men. According to the Committee the fight at Candelaria was merely an insignificant encounter.

The schooner recently captured with a cargo of armament for the Cuban revolutionists was released at Jampa and arrived yesterday at Cayo Hueso. It is considered that she landed her cargo safely for the revolutionists.

Washington, 18th—Senator Morgan, at the sitting to-day, spoke bitterly of certain letters published by the Spanish Minister, Sr. Dupuy de Lome, in regard to the Cuban question.

Berlin, 18th—The military papers criticise the Spanish operations in Cuba compared with the tactics of the rebels. The Militar Wochenblatt states that where a General like Martinez Campos failed Weyler is not likely to change the situation. The same paper points to the truly extraordinary feature that 25,000 incompletely armed peasants should outwit 150,000 disciplined soldiers, and states that Maceo and Gomez can prolong the war for years.

Washington, 18th—The Cuban Revolutionary Committee have already received 1½ million of gold dollars of subscriptions raised in this country, and money for the Cuban cause is still pouring in from all the States of the Union.

Madrid, 18th—Satisfactory news continues to be received of the campaign in Cuba. Several encounters all favourable to the Spanish arms have recently taken place in the Provinces of Pinar del Rio, Matanzas and Habana. The War Office is very pleased with the energy shown by General Weyler.

It is calculated that the attempt to suppress the Cuban revolution has already cost the Spanish Treasury 134 million hard dollars.

France

Paris, 18th—General Saussier will continue at his post as Military Governor of Paris.

Belgium

Eiege, 18th—The strike of colliers at Seraing is spreading. The men are greatly excited, and a general strike in the coal districts is expected if the Companies refuse the increase of wages demanded.

Italy

Genoa, 18th—The German Emperor is expected here on the 23rd instant for the expected interview with King Humbert. The Emperor William will resume his voyage to Greece the moment the interview is over.

Rome, 18th—It is announced that King Humbert will hold the interview with the Emperor Willam in Venice and not in Genoa as had been expected.

Bulgaria

Sofia, 18th—It is announced thet Prince Ferdinand will pay another visit to France shortly, and will officially visit President Faure while in Paris:

STORM-CLOUDS IN EUROPE.

The political situation in Europe has become suddenly most serious, and that at a moment when the French and their friends the Russians were gently chuckling at the British blunders in Transvaal and at the apparent isolation of Great Britain. Not a month ago the Boulevard press satirically urged Lord Salisbury to countenance a second Jameson Ride, mildy insinuating that another such failure would trow Egypt into the lap of France. In the meantime, the intervention of Germany in that Transvaal business and the threatening attitude of the United States—or Cleveland's "gaucherié"—enabled the British Government to arm. That France reaped some advantage from the Jameson blunder there can be no question, and even the opposition papers joined in a chorus of praise which must have been balm to the troubled feelings of the aged chemist minister on the Quai d'Orsay. Monsieur Berthelot blushed to find himself famous and possibly attributed to his own talents—so remarkably exemplified in the study of atoms and molecules,—a French success born a British failure.

How matters have altered and the feelings if not the position of France changed the telegrams received yesterday very clearly shew. The noble Marquis has performed one of those skilful moves for which he has made for himself a name, and his "spirited foreign policy" has suddenly burst trough the mask of apparent isolation and indifference.

There was a time when the shrewdest statesman believed that the Balkan States would set Europe on fire, but it is becoming every day more apparent that Africa is the great danger ahead. The dark continent swallows up men and money. The field of Zama still exists, and another Hannibal may yet encounter another Scipio. Events may transform the very cradle of humanity into a sepulchre.

An idea of how matters stand will be gathered from the following telegram:—

Paris, 17th—There can no longer be any doubt as to the real motive of the Dongola Expedition organized by Great Britain, and great excitement prevails not only in the vicinity of the Quai d'Orsay, but on the Boulevards, where the news fell like a bombshell. It was soon known that Lord Dufferin had had a long interview with Minister Berthelot. It is significant that the British Ambassador had barely got into his carriage, when Baron Mohrenheim, Russian Ambassador, entered the Foreign Office. The Baron and Mons. Berthelot were closeted for a long time. Nothing, however, of these momentous interviews has so far transpired, although it is asserted that Mons. Berthelot informed Lord Dufferin that the French Government considered itself directly affected by the expedition to Dongola. It is also asserted that Mons. Berthelot told Baron Mohrenheim that the French Government would interfere energetically.

In diplomatic circles it is considered a foregone conclusion that France will now directly oppose British policy in Africa, and it is feared that the clashing of interests will involve a serious conflict.

The press urge the Government to adopt an energetic policy.

The excitement amonst the deputies is very great and the indignation against England dangerously high, and it is said that to-morrow a note of protest will be passed.

Paris (later)—It is now known from semi official sources, that the object of Lord Dufferin's visit to the Foreign Office was simply to place in the hands of Mons. Berthelot a communication from Lord Salisbury duly announcing the Dongola expedition. Mons. Berthelot immediately called a Cabinet Council, and informed his colleagues that he had given no answer to Lord Dufferin, The Cabinet then authorized him to inform the British Ambassador that the French Government considered that the expedition would involve the gravest consequences.

The situation is most serious.

LONDON LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

February 19th.

The constitutional question in France between the Deputies and the Senators, arising from a financial scandal upon which the democracy and the wealthy hold different views, is watched in London with special interest. It is supposed to resemble what might happen here a few months hence, when the Chartered Company is supported by the Government and certainly by the music halls and the mob—as the Speaker says—against the attacks of the Nonconformist pulpits, the Christian-Socialist pulpits, the honest middle class, the Gladstonian papers, the righteously disposed, and peradventure the Unionist element in the Cabinet itself. Mr. Cecil Rhodes was asked to go away by his own London coterie lest his independent colonial ways should endanger society and the oneness of the Cabinet. The following little ballon d'essai is from the Daily Chronicle:

"We are glad to observe at last in the London Liberal Press something like an agreement on certain aspects of the South African questien. The two able journals which have hitherto been most favourable to the policy of Mr. Rhodes and the Chartered Company—the Westminster Gazette, and, latterly, the Daily News—now admit between them that the following points must be conceded:—

1. A full inquiry into the connection between the Chartered Company, the raid, and the revolutionary movement at Johannesburg, and into the financial origin and history of the Company.
2. A British guarantee to President Kruger that any reforms granted to the Outlanders shall not be used as a cover for upsetting his government, or establishing an Outlanders' Republic at Johannesburg.
3. Some compensation to him for what has occurred.
4. A policy of suasion from Downing-street rather than one of coercion.

We hope, therefore, that we may conclude that we no longer stand alone in the London morning Press—the popular evening Press and the provincial Press, both Home Rule and Unionist, have always been on the right side—in insisting, first, that a debt of honour was due by this country to the Boer Republic, and that the peace of South Africa was concerned in its discharge; secondly, that the raid was "no mere detail," as it has been called, but that it involved considerations vital to the safety of the Empire, the peace of Europe and the good name of Great Britain; and, thirdly, that the system of government by the Chartered Company, with its inevitable mixture of political and financial interests, must come under searching review. For ourselves—grateful as we are to the Spectator for its generous reference to our aims in this matter—we desire no solitary eminence in pressing for sound principles of government, and we shall welcome such co-operation as the Daily News, under its new editor, will afford us."

From what we can gather this morning, although no one from one moment to another can guarantee Transvaal and Capetown news, it does appear that President Kruger will after all accept Mr. Chamberlain's invitation and that, accompanied by a Commission, he will come to London and aid in a settlement of South African affairs.

The debate on the address came to a sudden termination last night. The Government will be now released from interpellations on their foreign policy unless something unlooked for occurs. The Times this morning does not condescend to allude to such subjects. Only the Morning Post, which took a day to consider the new blue book, ventures once more to tell Lord Salisbury that nobody can rise from a perusal of the last Armenian blue book without a stinging sensation of national defeat. You must remember that Lord Glenark, who owns and directs the Morning Post, is the bluest of blue Conservatives, and a staunch supporter of Lord Salisbury's government as he was of Lord Beaconsfield. The Post divides the blame between Lord Rosebery, Lord Kimberley and the present foreign Minister who, as it insinuates, sacrificed his own views to the doctrine or foreign office etiquette of continuity of policy. This excuse has been advanced before, but were it valid in regard to our policy in Turkey, and I do not think it is, it would not account for difficulties with the Transvaal, with France, Venezuela, Germany and the U. States.

The real evil was not so much a mistaken policy, as a blustering, unsympathetic manner and a too easy going habit of attending to business—a habit well enough some years ago, but quite out of keeping with the intensity of present day life. The Marquis of Salisbury is doubtless chastened by recent failure and is stirred by the activity of a more pushful if not a less dangerous colleague. His lordship may even take notice of the admonition he finds to-day in the North German Gazette, in which Prince Bismark's scribes warn him of the constant rivalry between British foreign Ministers to "accentuate," the democratic character of the British Constitution. This is only another version of what the Post meant when it accused him of abandoning his own policy to please the sentimentalists and philanthropists. But instead of listening to the Morning Post or to the North German Gazette it seems that Lord Salisbury, from his late motion in the House of Peers, his newer views as to the policy of the United States, and an apparent desire to follow the recent advice of Mr. Gladstone in leaning towards Republican France as the political and geographical ally of this country, he is inclined to still further accentuate the democratic character of the British Constitution. In this he will have the support of Liberals, who in spite of a temporary eddy and swirl in the political stream, still form the majority in the United Kingdom. Questions of foreign policy and Ministerial faults cannot be well thought out in letters written at a moment's notice, as facts occur, and often with most imperfect information. In the main, I think you have been correctly guided both as to fact and opinion in regard to foreign affairs in these letters, although they do not seem to please some of you in Buenos Ayres.

WHO WAS MYLATRIUS?

ASTOUNDING REVELATION.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Your jovial and classical junior editor, whose wonderful discovery of Horace's ode to Ireland is one of the literary events of the century, seems puzzled to know who was that jolly dog Mylatrius, whom Flaccus addresses in such endearing pentameter. I confess that in reading Scævola's preliminary letters ushering in the famous ode, my curiosity was also excited. I rushed through Lempriére and Rollin and plunged deep into the Augustan literature as well as that of the decline. But there was no trace of this mysterious Mylatrius. In this dilemma a happy idea struck me. Scævola by sheer logic had discovered the existence of the ode to Ireland; by sheer logic I was determined to unmask Mylatrius. This jolly dog was an Irishman—a true born Irishman according to the very ode itself, and yet bore a Latin name. I then remembered that Irishmen being wonderful linguists, often pass for natives in the countres they visit and we all know how they change their names to suit climate and nationality. You, yourself, have proved that Uriburu is merely Uri Boru (son of Brian Boru), Lainez, Lynes, Rocha Roche, Nuñez Newnes, et sic de multis. Now let us examine the name of Mylatrius. Let us split it in two Myl–atrius. Y is the Greek U (brought over to Ireland by the Phoenicians when they came over to look for tin). Therefore we may put down Myl as Mul. Now atrius? There is no such word, but there is a neuter—atrium, which means Hall. We can safely put down atrius as hall, from which I conclude that

MYLATRIUS IS MULHALL.

Allow to congratulate you and your glorious ancestor also the jovial Scævola who, I understand, also belongs to the illustrious family. How things fall out! But for your ancester the ode would never have been written and but for Scævola—his descendant (after a lapse of so many centuries) the ode would never have been brought to light. Hurrah for the STANDARD.

Yours sempiternally.

Classic.

[Ed. Note—Need we say that we feel six inches taller. It must be so, Classic. Thou reasonest well! We cannot help being struck by the simplicity of the Phoenicians who came over to Ireland for tin. Were they in the Green Isle to-day they would leave for the very same object.]

A STORY OF CORRIENTES.

(Written for the STANDARD by W. V. B.)

Having noticed in an article in your valuable paper about the Rio Negro, where you mention "For several miles, we have on either side of the river the camps of 'Our Lady of Itati,' so called by Descalzis, because one of his Paraguayan sailors being wearied at the oar promised an offering to the church of his native place if a breeze should spring up, which really occurred as the man rose from his knees."

I beg to inform you that Descalzis is mistaken, the Virgin of Itati is not in Paraguay, but here in Corrientes.

Although the Correntinos are fond of politics, revolutions, etc. ttill there is something in their nature, romantic, religious, or superstitious, as many will call it in these days when sinners are plentiful and saints are few; and when men pin their faith on science, and reject all that savours of the mystical and supernatural.

There are many legends about the Virgin of Itati, and who knows but some day it may become as popular and fashionable a shrine to make pilgrimages to as Lujan, and might in the course of time become an Argentine Lourdes. I regret I have no time at present to write all I know about this miraculous Virgin. But I will write two stories about her, by which you will see the shrine is in Corrientes, and that the peculiarity of this Virgin is that she likes people who have received favours from her to be ever grateful for the favours received, and to speak respectfully about it ever after; or else she quickly withdraws whatever blessing she may have granted, as you will see if you have the patience to read what I am about toreiate.

About two years ago I was out looking for some cattle that had strayed away from me across the "malezales," which are large swamps peculiar to Corrientes, having millioas of small mounds of earth about two feet high and one yard in diameter, and placed from one to two yards from each other; these "malezales" extend up to the coast of the great lake Iberá, which is sol arge that the eye of man cannot see across it, and looks like a small sea, and strange to say many small islands in its centre cannot be explored, as the lake is very deep in some parts and in others so shallow that boats stick in the quicksands, and as the oar cannot touch, "terra firme" cannot navigate. Several parties have lost their lives trying to get to these islands, their boats getting on the quicksands have not been able to shove off the slippery soft sand. This has given rise to the superstition that a large sea serpent guards these islands, and detains, and then upsets the boats going to them.

It was a scorching hot day with a "sol de agua", caused by some heavy dark clouds rising on the horizon, as I rode my horse towards a large ombú, which tree grows to perfection in this Province, being a native of it in order to rest myself and horse in its shade. Before getting to it I had to ride through a "cañada", and in the middle ot it, I saw the tops of two large wheels buried in the ground, and so weather beaten that they must have been there ages. On getting through the swamp, I reached the 'ombú' which was really a magnificent one, it being about seven yards in circumference around the trunk, and capable of giving shade to at least 30 horses. The ombú is such a beautiful tree for shade that I wonder estancieros don't plant more of them to shelter their cattle and sheep.

On my arrival at the ombú I killed a large 'garrará' snake about eight feet long, that seemed inclined to dispute my right to the shade. I then sat on one of the huge roots of the tree that was above ground and resembled a sofa in shape. For I was tired, having started on my journey long before sunrise, which is the custom in Corrientes, for the Correntino 'gaucho' is a very early riser, and thinks it a disgrace not to be up at day break. When travelling long journeys they are often two hours on the road by sunrise, and by mid-day have their 30 or 40 miles travelled, and when there is a "pulperia" on the road try to reach it by 'siesta' time. The great amusement for the Correntino is the 'pulperia', which in this Province are usually small 'ranchos' situated 2, 3, or 4 leagues from the estancias, and where they sell bad wine, caña, tobacco etc., and forms the rendez-vous of all the 'peones' within several leagues. It is there they have their races, play guitars, accordeons and sing. Their conversation consists nearly always, about races, marcaciones, lost animals, or about any murder or robbery that may have been commited during the week. At five years of age, a Correntino boy rides well, and when a few years older commence to tame horses, brand cattle, etc. When travelling they always carry a "lazo, bolas," and dagger, and seldom carry pistols. They are good swimmers and think nothing of crossing large rivers such as the Miriñay, Aguapey, and even the Uruguay, holding the horse by the mane and with the other arm swimming and helping the horse to face the current. They are accustomed at all seasons to sleep under trees, on their "recados", and sometimes travel two or three days and nights without resting, eating pieces of meat half raw, with ashes for salt, and no bread of any kind. These are some of the customs of the hardy sons of Corrientes.

The early rising makes them healthy, but I fear fails to make them wealthy or wise. For the poverty in this province is far greater than in Buenos Aires or Entre Rios. Going inland some leagues from the towns, most of the "ranchos" are composed of four corner posts and a thatch roof, and seldom have walls, they put an old hide to the side the wind blows from for shelter, and you see whole families going about almost naked, often without other clothing than a piece of sack-cloth tied around their waist. Their food when not travelling consists generally of maize, "mandioca," and "zapallos", and thousands of these poor people have never eaten bread. Bitter "mate" and milk is their beverage. No matter how poor they are, they always manage to buy "yerba", sugar they only use in time of sickness "para remedios"; but if their food is poor, nature has provided them with plenty of desert in the shape of fine oranges, which last nearly all the year round. Rare is the estancia or chacra that has not a large grove of orange and banana trees, you often see on the same tree ripe and green oranges and blossoms all at the same time.

SAINT PATRICK'S TEMPERANCE LEAGUE, CAMPANA.

On Sunday the 15th inst, a large gathering of Irish Catholics assembled in the rooms of the society to witness the "First Annual Tea Party" given to the children of the Catechism class.

The meeting opened by the distribution of prizes among the children by Mrs. James Burns assisted by Mrs. James J. Byrne: then the Rev. Father Purcell took advantage of the interval to congratulate the promoters of the society, and further to give a few words of encouragement to the children, which was followed by a very sumptuous tea, provided by the Irish Ladies of the district, to whom the Committee feel greatly thankful for the kindness shown. After the tea was finished the Rev. Father Purcell spoke again, and said it had given him great pleasure to be able to assist at such a happy, and pleasant gathering, on this, his last visit to Campana for some 6 months or so as he is about to take a trip to Europe, and further, on his return he hoped to be able to assist the Society in every way for furthering its advancement. At the conclusion of which the children spent the remaining part of the afternoon by amusing themselves at various games.

Everybody both old and young seemed very happy, especially the members of the committee, who steered the League through the first and hazardous part of its life into a degree of health, vigour and prosperity such as the most sanguine amongst them never anticipated at its birth. It is now in a position which gives every indication that it will long remain a happy meeting place for the Irish Catholics of this Partido.

VICTORIA CONVALESCENT HOME.

To the Editor of the STANDARD,

Dear Sir:

Having had the good fortune to meet your Mr. Mulhall (fils) in the street, and he having made a remark respecting my healthy appearance, I had to tell him the reason thereof, which was that I had just left the Victoria Convalescent Home, after several weeks' residence.

With all due respect to the superior talents and knowledge of the sundry gentlemen worthily representing the British medical profession in Buenos Aires, I ask their permission to be allowed to proffer a bit of friendly advice, viz: when they have done their best to alleviate the sufferings of feeble, frail humanity, let them take the earliest possible opportunity of crowning their work by consigning their patients to the "Home". They will have little cause to fear any relapse.

"Sunnyside" is in every sense of the word a "home", and a very beautiful home to boot. Beautiful woodland scenery, a good English-built house, complete and thorough cleanliness, wholesome British food, and plenty of it, exceptionally good attendance, and above and beyond all, that careful, friendly supervision, on behalf of the worthy and able Superintendent and his estimable wife, which goes so far to cause patients to forget their ills, and thus to arrive at that contented state of mind which so thoroughly conduces towards a perfect cure.

As a grateful recipient of the many benefits bestowed, and with the earnest hope that the "Home" may continue to receive the patronage its management and natural advantages merit,

I beg to remain,

Yours very truly

Edward Christian.

THE INUNDATION OF LYONS.

The cable announces that the Rhone has burst its banks and flooded Lyons, one of the most beautiful cities in all France. The following hurried mems about Lyons may interest many of our readers:—

Lyons has a popolation of over 370,000 It is the first city of France in point of manufactures, the third in point of population.

Its position is most picturesque, on the Saone and the Rhone, and it is a city of very high antiquity.

Along the banks of the Rhone and the Saone are magnificent quays, and the city possesses many handsome buildings.

Lyons is well fortified. Detached forts in a circle surround the city; the most important are those on the heights of St. Croix, Fourvieres and Croix Rousse. The last named suburb stands above the city and has been invariably the hot-bed of insurrection. It teems with turbulence. Nearly all the riots in Lyons have sprung from this quarter. It contains alone within its precincts upward of 30,000 silk weavers.

The Hotel de Ville is a very beautiful structure and historically of great importance. It was here the Revolutionary Tribunals sat from the year 1793. The first under Challier decreed the destruction of the city. The second consisted of Couthon, Fouche and Collet d'Herbois. The last named had been an actor and was hissed off the stage at Lyons; furious, he threatened vengeance against the inhabitants; chance gave him the power, and he caused the unfortunate citizens to be executed at the rate of 100 per day. Far more than two thousand persons were thus butchered, and the city was virtually razed to the ground.

The Cathedral, a structure of the twelfth century, is very imposing. Its stained glass is noticeable. Its great bell weighs 20,000 lbs.

Antiquailles, a vast hospital, occupies the site of the Roman Palace, where Claudius and Caligula both were born.

The Church of Notre Dame de Fourvieres stands on a conspicuous height above the Antiquailles. The edifice is surmounted by a dome with a colossal figure of the Virgin. From this height, on clear days, Mont Blanc, about 100 miles off, is often seen it is alleged.

The Church of St. Irene was erected on the spot where in the year of Our Lord 202, the cruel Septimus Severus caused to be massacred nearly 20,000 Christians who had met there to pray.

MOBILIZATION OF THE NATIONAL GUARD.

According to the latest calculations there will be no less than 100,000 Guards under arms, and this will form the active army of the nation. The reserve comprises 300,000 citizens. These figures point to a remarkable progress effected during the last twelvemonth, and indeed the country must feel grateful to the quiet citizen, who from the ministerial parlour, and with the very able assistance of General Capdevila and Colonel Garcia Mansilla, has succeeded in evolving order out of chaos and placing the country on a proper footing of defence to resist either the pretensions or onslaught of unfriendly neighbours.

The Chilian scare, so variously interpreted by enthusiasm or indifference, has in one way done a vast deal of good. It has roused the spirit of discipline and opened the eyes of the citizens to the responsibility that weighs on their shoulders, and it has gone far to remove that indifference which countenanced blunders and abuses.

According to the Government decree of the 12th inst., the army manœuvres are to take place during sixty days from April 15, and it is calculated that no less than 26,000, between soldiers and guards, will be brought together, including 3,420 artillerymen. The number of batteries at Villa Mercedes is to be doubled. The class called out for the manœuvres, as our readers are aware, comprises only the twenty-year-old citizens, but the 100,000 guards mentioned in the beginning of this notice comprise citizens from eighteen to thirty years.

A body of engineers are at present making out a plan of Curumalan and the seat of the future operations.

STORY OF ROENTGEN'S DISCOVERY.

BY ACCIDENT HE PHOTOGRAPHED THE BONES OF HIS HAND WITH A CROOKES TUBE.

Prof. Roentgen's discovery of the photographic power of the kathode rays was due to an accident. In experimenting with a Crookes tube through which a strong current was passing, but which was covered with a cloth, he happened to bring his hand between the tube and some sensitized photographic paper. Finding line, on the paper for which he could not account, he hunted for the cause, and found that the bones of his hand had been reproduced by the rays from the tube. In repeating his experiments recently before Emperor William, the Würsburg Professor explained that he had not yet solved the theory of the phenomenon and called the rays provisionally X-rays. In the first experiments the rays did not reproduce objects hidden by solid matter thicker than one inch, but since then Roentgen is said to have obtained pictures taken through aluminum plates a centimetre and a half thick, and also through two sets of books, and at Pesth parts of the human body larger than the hand have been taken.

There is no doubt about the genuineness of the phenomena discovered. Roentgen's photographs have been examined by Prof. Boltzman of Vienna, who says the discovery opens up a new epoch in the history of science. The experiments have been repeated successfully, with the same results, by Prof. Klupathy at Budapesth. Domalip at Prague, Pfündler, and Czermak at Gratz and in London. Roentgen says that not only are the X-rays not refracted by glass lenses or prisms, or in passing through water, but that they have no influence on the most sensitive magnetic instruments, and develop no heat.

SPORT

It is rather a curious coincidence that the two fillies Brise and Niza who showed up so well on Sunday last, should have been purchased by Don Juan N. Fernandez at the yearly sales. Brise is undoubtedly of the very best stamp and should confirm her running later on, as she won in very handsome style. Brise cost $3,100.

We see that a half sister of Imperio won the classic in the Mount on Sunday, starting second favourite. The Orientales are sending up Estinge and Triumviro to take part in Sunday's races; the former, we have the measure of, from last season, but Triumviro will be new. It is a good sign to see the Orientales taking so kindly to the Park.

Sport and Pastime says that the cricket fixture Buenos Aires C.C. v. Old Bedfordians originally made for 25th inst. has been postponed, owing to so many other fixtures clashing, a very advisable move indeed, especially with the Hurlingham meeting on, which will naturally draw the English element. We hear the entries for Hurlingham are very promising, so that it will be a great day there.

With regard to the complaint of W. H. C. published in this column last week, the Central Argentine Railway Co. beg us to state that the National Railway Law stipulates that the booking office shall be closed 2 minutes before the train is timed to start. As a matter of fact, however, trains never leave Belgrano before time; as a rule, they are a minute late in starting. With regard to the exorbitant charge of 50 cents, it resolves itself into less than 8d. for a journey of 5½ miles, first-class.

The following concessions for the Province of Buenos Aires have been granted up to data:

Southern Railway—San Carlos de Bolivar, Guamini, Puan, Carhue and Alfalfa—285 kilom. not yet begun.

25 de Mayo to San Carlos de Bolivar—not yet begun.

Saladillo to Alvear—50 kilolom.—not yet begun.

Lobos to Navarro and 25 de Mayo—205 kilom.—works postponed.

Olavarria to Bahia Blanca—276 kilom.—not yet begun.

Western Railway.—Lavalle to Villegas. 111 kilometres—4 kilom.—laid down—works in progress.

Lincoln to Lavalle—33 kilometres—line finished.

Trenquelauquen to Carhue—137 kilom.; not yet begun.

Haedo to San Martin—10 kilom.—not yet begun.

THEATRES.

The debut of the Tomba Company at the Politeama last night was a most pronounced success. It is a somewhat hazardous experiment to open with an entirely new work, but after hearing "I Granatieri" one cannot be surprised at the management selecting this work for the first appearance of the Company. The music throughout the opereta is remarkably pretty and the interest in the piece does not flag for one moment. The principal characters are Nini (Sra Pasquali), Eduardo (Sr. Contarini), Jorge (Sr. Migliazzi), Il Marchese di Largetron (Sr. Marangoni), Bernardo Sr. (Poggi), and all were sustained. Sra. Pasquali, who is an old favorite, is simply splendid, both in acting and singing, and her assumption of the character of the Marquesa in the second act stamps her at once as a veritablo Queen of opereta. Sr. Poggi as Bernardo, the recruit is most comical and these two undoubtedly are the chief elements of success in a work that is brimful of comedy. Amongst the chief morceaux must be mentioned the trio and quartet in the second act, the duet between Nini and Bernardo, which was twice encored, the drinking song and chorus in the 3rd act, and the finale to the first act. The chorus is very large and good, and the dresses and general mounting excellent. This opereta is to be repeated to-night. To-morrow they give Rigoletto.

Those who have not yet tried their success with the Automaton Draught player will have an opportunity very shortly, as next month he returns from Montevideo, where at the Kermesse he has been doing splendid business.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Heavy weather. Hot news from Europe and pretty hot from Chile. Buoyant Gold Eagle. Argentine boom in Capel Court fizzling. Madame La France in a towering tantrum at being "sold" again by "la perfide Albion." Germany and Austria grinning at her. The Russian Bear silent and with a queer leer in his eye, as if he had some private understanding with the British Lion behind his fair ally's pretty back. The Modern Gauls are in a towering rage, and there is really no knowing what "locura" they may be guilty of. They have done nothing silly yet, however, or there would have been a krach on the Paris Bourse yesterday. The upshot of the whole pow-wow is that John Bull has virtually joined the Triple Alliance.

Some uneasiness was felt yesterday at a rumour that the illustrious General Mitre was seriously unwell, but it turned out to be exaggerated. The General is merely suffering from an old complaint contracted during the Paraguayan war, but he is otherwise all right and has not interrupted his usual literary labours.

We return our best thanks to Colonel Garcia, our active Chief of the "Estado Mayor de Marina", for his polite card yesterday announcing the safe arrival of the Argentine gunboat Parana in the Bay of San Blas. This is the first step the Argentine Government has taken in 13 years to do anything for the best bay in the whole Republic. Admiral Kennedy when he visited San Blas was astonished to find such a perfect natural harbour on the South East coast of South America, and sent a special report to the British Admiralty on the impregnability of San Blas as a naval port. The officers of the Parana are now engaged putting down the buoys in the channel. The Parana entered San Blas without buoys or pilot; and Colonel Garcia is just the man to know the value of such a splendid port for his war-vessels, many of which are too large to enter Buenos Aires or even Bahia Blanca, but they can all enter San Blas even should they draw 35 feet of water.

Letters from Cañada de Gomez dated Monday say that they have had rain up there for eighteen hours at a stretch—Saturday and Sunday—and on Monday it was very hot.

We never in all our life saw the crops looking better than in our Pilgrimage to Lujan on Sunday, and our trip to Mar del Plata last month. The sheepfarmers and estancieros must be rolling in lots of money. The next question is what they will do with all the money. Letters from Pringles on the Rio Negro say that it has not rained down there for several months, and the camps of the valley of the Rio Negro are getting all dried up. Mr. Buckland writes, however, from the estancia Lambaré in front of Pringles, and says that he has a glorious crop of potatoes this year, and wants to know the price here for a lot say of 100 tons. From what we saw of the potato fields in Mar del Plata we should say that potatoes this year will be cheaper in the Plate than in Old Ireland.

We understand that through the increasing number of pupils at the North American Normal School, 470 Sipacha, an addition to the building may become necessary. The classes of the Normal and National College Departments opened the 2nd of this month with a very good attendance of pupils. This school has a staff of 18 well-known and experienced professors and teachers.

There was a tremendous gathering of our "Hoch sollen sie leben" friends at the docks yesterday to bid good bye to the passengers on board the German ss. Mark. We never in our life saw such a place as this Buenos Aires is. To stand on the dock yesterday and watch and listen to the "wie gehts" going on around, you would imagine you were in old Bremen, whilst the other side of the dock, alongside the large Italian steamer, you heard only "a rividerti," "buona sera," "a mi recordarmi." Why, it was Genoa or Naples over again; and but a few hours before, at Georges Mercer's it was Erin-go-bragh, and hurrah for Old Ireland with the sky over it.

Our Italian friends have almost quite recovered their usual buoyant spirits, owing to the inaction of the Dervishes at Kassala and old England sailing in to help them. No so our Spanish "amigos," who don't relish the news from Cuba and now declare that Weyler is even a greater duffer than Martinez Campos. It is beginning to look as if Home Rule for the Pearl of the Antilles is within measurable distance.

The telegrams and papers from Chile yesterday were unpleasantly bellicose. The general impression is that there is a serious hitch in the Boundary muddle. Our neighbours feel themselves cornered, and get angry instead of answering Yes or No to the plain questions politely put to them.

Our Chilian republican brothers got another shaking up by Mother Earth yesterday about lunch hour to help them to digest their sandwiches etcetera. There were three shocks—one strong and two weak—and the citizens showed a lot of alarm. A pleasanter bit of news is that the Anglo-Chilian Arbitration Tribunal has finished its labours, and Mr. St. John, the British representative, has received a round £1,000 for his services.

Immigration is beginning to boom again. Up to yesterday 3315 new souls and bodies have arrived this month, which beats the whole month of March last year, in which the arrivals only reached 3305. In the first quarter of 1895 the total was 10,337, whereas this year up to date the arrivals have been 15,668 and it is hoped the figure will teach 18,500 by the end of the month.

General Campos, Commander in Chief of the manœuvres at Curumalan, intends to run down there to have a look at the ground for the encampment. It appears that the roads are in such a lamentable state that they will have to be mended to enable the troops to get to the camping ground. Pleasant prospect for the Guards.

What's this? The Rentas Office has reported to the Finance Minister that several Companies who have rented land in the port (amongst them Messrs. Lamport and Holt) refuse to pay the rent. The Rentas Office asks the Minister to authorize the immediate ejection of these tenants unless they pay up at once.

Now, gentlemen, back your flag. The Danube and the Equateur start on a race to old Europe to-morrow. Ten to one on the Englishman.

We find in a French newspaper a hint that may be of great use to the young National Guards while they are in the tented field. In the French army many experiments have been made recently to solve the problem of keeping the atmosphere of the tent warm while the soldiers are asleep at night. After many attempts, all of which failed, the intelligent soldiers of France solved the question for themselves by digging a hole in the ground in the middle of the tent, filling it with heated stones, and covering them with earth. This very simple device raises the temperature in the tent to fully 12 degrees above that of the outer air, even in the coldest nights of winter.

Here is another most interesting anecdote from Howard Paul's breezy new book "Dinners with Celebrities." "On one occasion Dickens and Mr. Paul walked from Stratford to Warwick, and passing the sign of a draper with a Chadband on it Mr. Paul pointed to it and said, I thought you invented that name?" "No," was the reply of Dickens, "I took it from that very sign, and you are one of the few people who have noted the discovery. I saw it a year or more before I used it, popped it down in my note book, and when I was thinking over a name for the character I was then engaged on Chadband seemed to fit it, and it was a telling stroke, for people seem to remember both the character and the name."

Really John Bull is a wonderful fellow for taking his sports, his drinks, his meats, his tub, and everything that is his with him to all climes and all ends of the earth. We note in our invaluable colleague Sport and Pastime that hare hunting has now been established in Santa Fé province. The Santa Fé hares originally sprung from a few brought out by Mr. Tietjen, and turned down by him on his estancia near Cañada de Gomez. They have increased wonderfully for leagues round Cañada, and are very plentiful, in spite of being hunted with greyhounds, run down on horseback, and shot by the Sunday sportsmen on every available occasion. We like hare soup immensely, and hope our Santa Fé friends will send us the material for making some.

That irrepressible nobleman Count Das, after a partial eclipse, has turned up again as fresh as a daisy in Montevideo, and our British daily colleague there opens fire on him in the following Maxim-gun fashion: — "That dangerous humbug who calls himself the Conde de Das is again in this city, and has had the impudence to propose to give a performance in favor of the Italian Patriotic Fund, which is anything but complimentary to the Italians. We would suggest that his Countship is played out in this part of the world, and that he seek fresh fields and pastures new, but still out of the reach of extradition treaties."

The Butler murder case is again coming to the front in Montevideo, and promises more sensation than ever, as the Criminal Fiscal, Dr. Martinez, has taken the case up vigorously, and the first witness he intends to summon is "a certain high political personage" whose name has been mentioned in connection with the crime ever since it was committed. This high personage is no other than the ex-President of the Republic, Dr. Herrera y Obes at least so the gossips say, and they often make a good guess.

Our printers, or their devil or the proof readers are responsible for a mistake in Messrs. Wyse; and De Grys advertizement of their CycleClocks, the price of these nice and usefullittle articles being eight dollars, not three as printed by mistake.

The cricket match played at Peñarol on Sunday last between the M. V. C. C. and the C.U.R.C.C. resulted in a win for the former by 120 runs to 74 on the single innings.

God save the Queen. The late John Bright used frequently to declare that Her Majesty was the most absolutely truthful person he had ever met.

The 'Mericun Gurl is still flashing new social "notions" on the world, whenever she has a moment to spare from her pet occupation of capturing a British nobleman for a husband. A "Dove-Feast" is the latest American term for a luncheon party where only girls are invited. The guests wear small boquets of violets tied with white satin ribbon as emblems of their dove-like and modest nature.

We have received from Valparaiso and will extract from it to-morrow, a copy of La Union in which there is a remarkable article giving the opinion of a retired German officer as to a war between Chile and Argentina. In 1892 this officer said: "With 50,000 men I will undertake to march into Buenos Aires one month after leaving Santiago, In four years more it will require 100,000 men to do it: and after that it will depend on what each country may have done to be able to invade the other, or resist invasion by it. I am of opinion that there is an immense advantage in carrying the war into the enemy's country."

Peru is preparing for war, another sign of the timed. She has just orders 10,000 Mausers, to replace the Manlichers now in use in her army; also the purchase of a number of Argentine and Chilian horses, to remount her army. We suppose stern and wild Bolivia will be the next in the armament field.

Our Sandy Point colleague Magallanes found a most tremendous mare's nest when it discovered that cave at Ultima Esperanza to which we referred the other day. A leading estanciero who knows the place well informs us that the cave in question has been used for years by the farmers of the district as a deposit for their wool, hides and skins!!

Whew! The new torpedo boat Desperate, of the Destroyer type, made her trial trip at Chiswick on Tuesday and showed the astounding speed of 35¼ miles per hour. This is far faster than an average railway train in this country. The Desperate carries six guns and is of 5400 horse power.

The famous "ley de conchavos" in Tucuman, which allows sugar planters to beat, starve and illtreat their unfortunate peons worse than ever the slaves in the Southern States of the Union were treated is at last to be abolished, as it seriously interferes with immigration into the Garden of the Republic. The Deputies have already voted its abolition, and the Senate will follow suit this week.

Old Uncle Paul Kruger seems now to be quite friendly with John Bull after the recent little unpleasantness. He is going to give the foreigners in the Transvaal a large extension of political rights, without absolutely putting them on a par with the Boers. He will start for London next month to settle the whole thing with Joe Chamberlain.

Professor Harperath of Cordoba is still experimenting with Dr. Roentgen's "cathode" rays, which he declares to be the long sought for "black light" which passes through coal, Chinese ink, paper and black glass. He has obtained perfect photographs with it, not mere shadows. In reference to this truly wonderful discovery, a London financial paper says:—"The recent discovery attributed to Prof. Roentgen that solids are not impervious to the rays of a certain light promises to have important results, not only in the domain of science, but also in applications in the field of industry. Investigators almost everywhere are now engaged in experimenting in photography with the cathode rays, and forecasts of what may be expected to follow the introduction of the method in metallurgy, surgery and other departments of human activity are attracting interest. Il reads almost like a fairy tale of science to learn that naval engineers, for example, expect to see the new photography employed in the detection of hidden flaws in machinery on which the efficiency of ships in action is dependent, and in studying the mysterious inner workings of boilers and other machinery."

The probable new Chilian Minister here to replace Mr. Guerrero, is Mr. Blanco Viel, a distinguished gentleman who has hosts of friends here, made when he was a political exile in our midst. He will be a "persona grata" in every sense of the word.

The irrepressible Sarah has edged her way into some New York society. We find the following paragraph in an exchange from the Empire City:—"It is not in the theatre alone that Mme. Sarah Bernhardt is charming society. Last Sunday the great actress went to the attractive house of Mrs. Nicholas Fish, in Irving Place, to meet a very small company, none but those speaking French well being asked. Mme. Sarah's charm proved as great in the drawing room as on the stage.

The annual general meeting of the Jockey Club was held on Saturday last when the following committee were elected for the ensuing season:—Ex-President Carlos Pellegrini, Enrique Acebsl, Guillermo Martinez, Ignacio Correas, Salvador Socas, Pedro Benedit, Marcelo T. de Alvear, Ramon Paz, Bernardino Acosta, Francisco Madero, Horacio Varela, Cándido Bollini, Ramon Biaus, Rufino Luro and Manuel Guiraldes. Dr. Pellegrini will probable be elected President of the Club in due course.

The Chief of the Army Staff, General Capdevila, went to the National College on Tuesday night while the National Guard officers were in Academia, and expressed himself as highly pleased with the proceedings, and the evident desire of the young officers to learn the trade of war as quickly as possible.

Special Notices.

"94, Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12.
"Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feeling, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucous, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir yours truly, J. HILL."

Ultimo Testimonio recibido

Señores Agar, Cross y Cia., Buenos Aires
Muy Señores mios

Con haber introducido en esta colonia su máquina retormada MacCormick y á mas que en el dia de la fecha para que sea mas completa con la nueva aplicación á la misma máquina del Cutter Bar Frames, he recibido un perjuicio de regular consideracion y un beneficio que supera pero grandemente al perjuicio. Asi se lo manifesté verbalmente á su representante Sr. Jorge Winter. El perjuicio es que tengo muchas máquinas, segadoras de alfalfa y no sé que haré de ellas porque mis chacareros no quieren mas que MacCormick, y el beneficio es que teniendo alfalfares "sembrados espresamente con muchos graminios" todavia no habia encontrado máquina las cortara tan perfectamente como estas. Como en el año proximo cortaré mas de 2000 hectareas de alfalfa semilla y es alli donde se ven las buenas máquinas, les pediré algunas mas, segun venga el corte semilla, este año necesitaré dos. En un concurso, quisiera ver como se puede probar que haya maquina que supere á esta.

FIRST RING 217.50%
SECOND RING..... 217.00%

If the bears expected any relief to-day, they were most woefully disappointed. The bulls were in possession and they kept there. The gold quotations ran riot. Taking full advantage of the flowing tide everything was snapped up, at the ring as fast as the sellers turned up and the prices shot to 319 for cash and 320.50 for end of month almost before business was fairly in swing. There was in fact no disposition to sell on time except in certain quarters where it was shrewdly supposed that the contango was the object, whilst the bears wagged their heads, more in sorrow than anger, as they traced the hand of the Government still at work in the heavy demands. The revolution as regards opinion may now be considered complete. The chant of gold being dear has become a dirge, and everybody now asks at what price will it be worth selling again. Of course the stiff spurt must soon relax; the strain will bring the inevitable reaction in train, but even those who are awaiting this are the firmest believers in what they style the fallacy of cheap gold. Paper continues as tight as ever, looked for all over the market and thrown on to the pyre that keeps blazing. With the "pase" keeping as stiff as a rock and exchange dropping, the prospects are not very roseate—from a bearish stand point.

The operations in gold at the first hour ran to over 1¼ million, quotations opening at 317 for cash, being a point in advance of closing quotations yesterday, and bursting like a rocket to 319 before buyers thought they could do better; the price then relaxed slowly to 317.50 at which it closed, the quotation after hours being 317 buyers. For end of month sellers were content with a steady 1¼ point difference on cash price, and all that was wanted could be had in this way, there being equal facilities to buy for end of April at 4¼ points; but if there were more sellers to-day there was no lack of buyers for all dates, buyers all round being the report at the close of the ring. A few stray Catalinas, a small batch of Cedulas and 20 French banks comprised the whole business in stocks.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

$ 338,000 for cash at 317-317.50-317-318 318.50-319-318.50-318-318.30-50-318-318.50-318-317.50-80-50-80-50.

For cash.. 600 at 4.50-30.

In our last issue we made a mistake in announcing that the drawing of National A Cedulas came off to-day. It has been fixed for Lady-day, 25th inst. We also mixed things up a bit in reporting the failure of Maury Bros., describing them as an Oriental firm. A broker put us right on this head, informing us that he knows the firm well, one of the oldest milling businesses in the country and established at Uruguay in Entre Rios.

The whole market has received with regret the news of the death of Don Domingo Garbino, an excellent man who figured very prominently in Entre Rios for a long term of years as banker and saladerista. He was a very old resident and much esteemed not only in Gualeguaychu, where his business interests were centred, but in the province, and indeed the market at large, where he was very highly thought of.

The great topic on 'Change this morning was the telegram to the Diario from London announcing that Minister Dominguez had received a message from his Government advising him of £270,000 in exchange having been remitted by the Minister, Dr. Romero, and also ordering Dr. Dominguez to remit from the Argentine funds existing in London a further sum of £280,000 to Captain Rivadavia in Genoa to pay for the new ironclad Varese, which two amounts cover the cost of that vessel, less about £10,000 stg., small balance still due. This news corresponds with our remarks a few days ago on the sudden drop in our exchange market, caused by the large amount of exchange taken by the Government. The Argentine Government now possesses two of the largest ironclads in this Hemisphere, and these two majestic war vessels are, perhaps, the very best guarantee of peace with Chile. No other South American nation possesses such powerful war ships, and with good officers and crews Argentina may laugh at all the naval powers South of the Equator. The Argentine Navy, under the very able direction of Colonel Garcia, has come very fast to the front, and the whole South-east Argentine coast, which has been so long neglected, will henceforward be well looked after and protected.

Splendid news this morning from London, Liverpool and Antwerp. Wheat, wool, linseed and cattle all up, and every cargo from the Plate now entering leaves handsome profits to the shippers.

Things up country seem very quiet, the authorities being apparently occupied with putting the finishing touches to the mobilization of the National Guard. In Santa Fé, however, we see that the Government is busy with a plan for arrangement of the debt, and the Municipal bondholders will not be sorry to learn that they will come in under the scheme, if carried through, as the province will take the Rosario Corporation under its wing. The failure of the crops in so many districts is now showing itself, several houses having called meetings of creditors, and another proof in point is that, in the first two months of 1895 the Central Argentine had to run 8 cereal trains a day to cope with the transport, whilst this year two trains daily is found quite sufficient, the tonnage carried being respectively 155,000 and 118,000, shewing a falling of 37,000 tons or say 24%. There is continual complaint in shipping circles about the state of the port; the "flooring" wants al ot of looking after and the agents are soliciting the good offices of the local Government to have the dredging plant increased and the work pushed ahead.

Cables received from London, to-day, announce that the shareholders of the Pacific Railway, at general meeting held yesterday, approved the arrangement with Government about guarantee. The business is now fixed up and all plain sailing.

The cables also report a fall in quotations of Argentine stocks, the Funding loan closing at 83¼ and the Morgan loan at 75¼, but there are no symptoms of any collapsing tendency nor of a bearish movement, the stocks being reported very strongly held.

Advices from San Juan report business in wine very brisk. Don Juan Cereseto has succeeded in placing 10,000 bordalesas in this market, which is a big order, and Messrs. Copello and Co. have bought up the whole crop of Messrs. Gil and Sanchez's vineyard, French grape, at $3 to 3.10 the quintal. Messrs. Uriburu and Medici calculate a yield of 5,000 quintals from their vineyard this year. In Mendoza the vineyards have given an equally favorable result, so that there will be more Argentine wine this year on the table than ever known before.

The Lord Mayor and the almaceneros are at last within embracing radius. The former is satisfied with a promise that he will get, under the project proposed by the "trade," all the shinplasters he expected from his own abortive scheme, whilst the almaceneros are content with having the odious double tax abolished. If the Lord Mayor had only met the "trade" in this spirit from the start there would have been no loggerheads at all. It was only a question of beginning at the wrong end.

Although there were symptoms of a break-back at the second hour in the gold market they were not very pronounced and the principal feature was the shortening of the "pase" which tightened up to about a point between cash and end of month. The brokers reported the market a trifle weaker at the close of the day, but can detect no signs of the reaction, hazarding the opinion that though operations may start to-morrow with a fall in rates the force of the current will reassert itself before the business is very old. Summing up to-day's transactions it will be seen that over 2 million dollars have been chalked up and rates still advancing, closing a point higher than yesterday; if this does not look bullish it sounds like it, at all events.

Business at the second hour embraced something over ¾ million, pretty squarely, divided between cash and dates. There was fair demand for cash, but there was also more liberality with sellers on time, and this reflected on the ready money business, driving rates back from 218.50 to 316.80, closing at 317. After the hour there were sellers still offering at 317 and buyers wanted as low as 317½ for end of month which was not forthcoming and not much available even at 318. For end April 323½ was done but afterwards declined to close at 322. In stocks the principal item was a lot of National F Cedulas disposed of at 81.

The following is a summary of the operations effected to-day at the second ring:—

Here is another list of Bolsa members accepted by the Camara Sindical at yesterday's meeting. The general impression is that there are too many members altogether, and if it were not for the crisis, the Plaza de Mayo would be too small to hold them all:—Pablo M. Aldazabal, Pedro Barlet, Erazmo Beraldo, Dante Coxioia, José Devoto, Antonio Gomez, Manuel E. Hurtado, Guillermo Leitzera, Manuel Massa, José M. Miranda, Esteban Peluffo, Rafael Pividal, Clemente Spinetto and Gregorio Viera.

Mr. Luis Correa Morales has applied for admission to the ring.

Mr. Cilley-Vernet who has arrived back from a tour of inspection in the camp, reports having visited San Nicolás, Ramallo, Baradero, San Pedro, Zarate and Campana and found camps, crops and animals all in first class order. Mr. Cilley-Vernet is inspector for the La Plata Government

In our advertising columns will be found the announcement of three of the largest trade exhibitions and markets in the world, which are annually held at the Royal Agricultural Hall, London, England, under the auspices and direct patronage of all the leading firms in the respective trades. It will be seen that the "Confectioners' and Bakers' Exhibition" takes place from September 18th to 25th; the "Grocery, Provision, Oil and Italian Warehouse Traders' Exhibition" from October 2nd to 9th; and the "Brewers,' Maltsters', Mineral Water Manufacturers,' &c., Exhibition and Market" from October 31st to November 6th. It will be readily understood that these gatherings form the most favourable markets for all who desire to purchase to the best advantage, and it would be well for Colonial and Foreign firms to instruct their various European agents to visit these Exhibitions in due course and place their orders accordingly. The Agricultural Hall is the largest building of its kind in England, and the commercial transactions effected during the progress of these three important organisations is always phenomenal.

The Government of Buenos Aires has asked the Finance Minister to exchange the offices of the Aduana at La Plata for shed No. 4, for the examination of passengers' luggage.

The Finance Minieter has decided that all importers of manufactured tobacco and cigarettes when despatching them must first present the manifests at the Internal Taxes Office (or to its delegates in the provinces) and no Custom-House can despatch the articles in question, till the manifests have been duly presented to the Internal Tax department.

The Procurador del Tesoro has recommended the Finance Minister to authorize the Fiscal at Rosario to compromise the case against the match manufacturers Escuvisor and Co, for defrauding the Revenue.

The Argentine Consul in Newport reports the following prices for Argentine produce there last month. Fresh beef 8½ to 8¾ pence per pound. Live steers 60 2/3 to 63 shillings per quintal of 112 pounds, Live sheep 35 to 47s. Wheat 24¾ to 27¼ shillings per 496 pounds. Flour 19½ to 24½ per 280 pounds.

The Argentine Consul at Swansea reports: Fresh beef 6½ to 8: Live steers 43s. to 54s., Sheep 27 to 45s., Flour 30 to 31s., Sheepskins 4 to 7½ s., cow hides 2 to 3¼ pence per pound.

The exchange market was weaker and dull to-day, and the news from London of $270,000 being on the way home of course was immediately connected with the decline, as the Government has been and is still, they say in the ring, a heavy taker. The very best paper was quoted to-day:—

London 48¼ d.
France 5.07.
Antwerp 5.08.
Belgium 5.09.

There is great demand for paper at 8½ to 9%.

The Custom-House receipts to-day were:—

	$ paper	$ gold
Imports and exports to-day.....	260,735	14,856

The Minister of Finance has fixed the price of gold for payment of Custom-dues at 317 for Thursday, March 19th.

SALES AND AUCTIONS.

The great feature in the live-stock line will be Bullrich's auction at Dr. Yrigoyen's estancia on Sunday next. The great Radical leader is famous for his stock, which usually tops the market in price, and the sale will he attended by all the buyers in the country. San Fermin is a model estancia, and we see from the catalogues that the drafts to be sold are sure to command much attention.

A short time ago the Curumalan company put a nice lot of colts on sale at Tattersall's but prices ran so low that both the breeders and the auctioneers were chagrined at a most dissappointing result. Our colleague Sport and Pastime, an authority in this line, attributes this to the fact that town buyers like their horses to hand, having neither time nor inclination to handle them. We call the Company's attention to the point. Another trial with the correction proposed would shew whether there is a market or not.

Bullrich and Co. brought off two very important sales to-day. They sold the splendid central property Calle 25 de Mayo 150-158, between Piedad and Cangallo, a step for the Central Station and the Bolsa and a stone's throw from Banking corner, for $112,000, buyer Mr. Luis Cornelio Saavedra. The site measures 17.56x58.50 metres with "martillo" in favor of 8.30x-13.30 sq. metres which gives on the price a rate of $114 the metre. This seems very cheap for such a situation.

Same auctioneers then sold the house Calle Lavalle 324 between Reconquista and 25 de Mayo for $64,000, buyer Mr. Emilio Silva on commission. The property measures 14x64 metres with a "martillo" in favor of 6·78x25.40 metres, giving a total superficies of 1088 metres. The price per metre, therefore, works out at about $58 which also seems law.

Messrs. Collet and Llambi sold to-day part of well known Craig estancia in Carmen de Areco, known as the Caledonia, a few squares from the Rural tram and a brace of leagues from Rivas and Castilla stations on the Pacific Line, surrounded by the Duffy, O'Brien, Irigoyen and Cadred properties. The land sold embraced 446 hectares, and Mr. Juan Fallon was the buyer at $87 the hectare.

The following gives one an insight as to the affairs in our foreign cattle markets:

Mr. Charles F. Goad, of Santa Catalina, Azul has recently been visiting several of the principal herds of Aberdeen-Angus cattle in Scotland, and selected from that of Mr. George Smith Grant, Auchorachan, Glenlivet, four bulls of fine pedigree and and high individual merit. The bulls are Rover 12th of Powrie, Minos of Auchorachan, Dion, A1, and Rubicon of Auchorachan. Two are sired by Mr. Grant's champion bull Equastrian, one by the famous bull Eurotas of Ballindalloch, and the other is one of the Rovers of Powrie.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

A cold, perhaps better said, a chilly feeling was remarked this morning in cereal circles. For the last few days a relapse has been noticed in cereals, but our daily experience shows that both grains are rapidly disappearing from the black boards. Exporting have fallen back at a moment when everybody thought they would enter the market under a decided firmness. The globe revolves, consequently one cannot complain at the sudden relaxation on the part of exporters. Perhaps if one looked into the question more closely one might find a defect, but as we are tied to time it is beyond our reach to seek the cause.

Notwithstanding the telegrams from Europe linseed seems to be in a back boat; the principal market, Rosario does not throw much influence on the subject.

Wool circles seemed a bit brighter this morning 600,000 kilos were sold, the demand lying still for fine qualities; still with the strong competition, we notice that cross classes came a little to the fore. Messrs. Devoto, Balbiani and Co. sold in the Central 20,000 kilos fine wool from the Sonth West at 8.30, 5,000 do from the West at 7 dollars, 15,000 do at 8.60, 15,000 do at 9.30, 5000 lamb's wool at 8.60 and 7,000 do belly wool at 3 and 4.20.

The situation of the flour market remains in a rather bad state. The sales in Santa Fé are very small. The millers refuse to do any business, and if one considers the present state of affairs it seems that this year there will be a small yield, as the millers do not seem inclined to work.

The following are the current rates:—

Flour from the Capital—0	$ 1.35 to 1.45
" " Special....	" 1.15 " 1.20
" " 1st.....	" 0.75 " 0.80
" from Santa Fé—Double 0..	" (nominal)
" " 0 one ground	"
" " 2nd.....	"

The same old tune in Rosario, the markets were so dull that it is absolutely impossible to write anything about them. The great fall off in business is put down principally to the large shipments. The operations this morning were rather dull, a change is expected when new vessels arrive, as those in the dock are already chartered. But as soon as exporters commence to operate again, it is quite probable that reaction will take place, which will give a great spurt to affairs. The current prices in the market are 7.15 and 7:20. The transactions were too insignificant to report. Maize is dead, no importance is attached to the article, market prices are at 3.05 and for other class 2.90.

Linseed stands firm at 8.50 and 9.50. No transaction was reported.

Nothing new from Montevideo, cereals are as quiet as usual. Wheat is quoted at 2.60 and 2.70. The demand to-day for this grain was absolutely nil. Maize is at a stand still, no change has been reported in its price.

A sale of 106 tons of bone ash from Messrs. P. Harriague's saladero in Salto at 5.00 much spoken off. The large cattle auction in Fray Bentos is the great topic of the day. 1500 head of cattle and 15,000 sheep and a large number of mares will shortly be sold under the auctioneer's hammer.

Operations in wool are daily declining, only three lots were sold in the whole day, and even these insignificant transactions were kept secret. Owing to the small stock on hand, prices are well sustained.

The saladero "faena" is a little better, the prices paid for steers are now from 12 to 14 dollars.
